God with and in us

The Holy Spirit universalizes the presence of Jesus.

Michael Green

It stands to reason, doesn't it, that if the alive-and-present God who raised Jesus from the dead moves into your life, he'll do the same thing in you that he did in Jesus, bringing you alive to himself? When God lives and breathes in you (and he does, as surely as he did in Jesus), you are delivered from that dead life. With his Spirit living in you, your body will be as alive as Christ's!

Romans 8:11 (Message)

Churchgoers all across the nation say the Holy Spirit has entered them. They claim that God has given them a supernatural ability to follow Christ, put their sin to death, and serve the church. Christians talk about being born again and say that they were dead but now have come to life.... Yet when those outside the church see no difference in our lives, they begin to question our integrity, our sanity, or even worse, our God. And can you blame them?

Francis Chan

What I'm trying to do here is get you to relax, not be so preoccupied with getting so you can respond to God's giving. People who don't know God and the way he works fuss over these things, but you know both God and how he works. Steep yourself in God-reality, God-initiative, God-provisions. You'll find all your everyday human concerns will be met.

Jesus. Luke 12

The world of sense intrudes upon our attention day and night for the whole of our lifetime.... It does not appeal to our faith; it is here, assaulting our five senses, demanding to be accepted as real and final. Sin has so clouded the lenses of our hearts that we cannot see that other reality, the City of God, shining around us.

At the root of the Christian life lies belief in the invisible. The object of the Christian's faith is unseen reality.
