Hope in God
Not Riches

Greed puts a wrong value on temporal things. It treats temporal things as if they, and we, will endure on earth forever. But, in fact, we could die today or all our things could be taken from us instantly. There's no such thing as financial security in this world. Greed also treats eternal things as if they aren't real and never will happen.

Not Riches

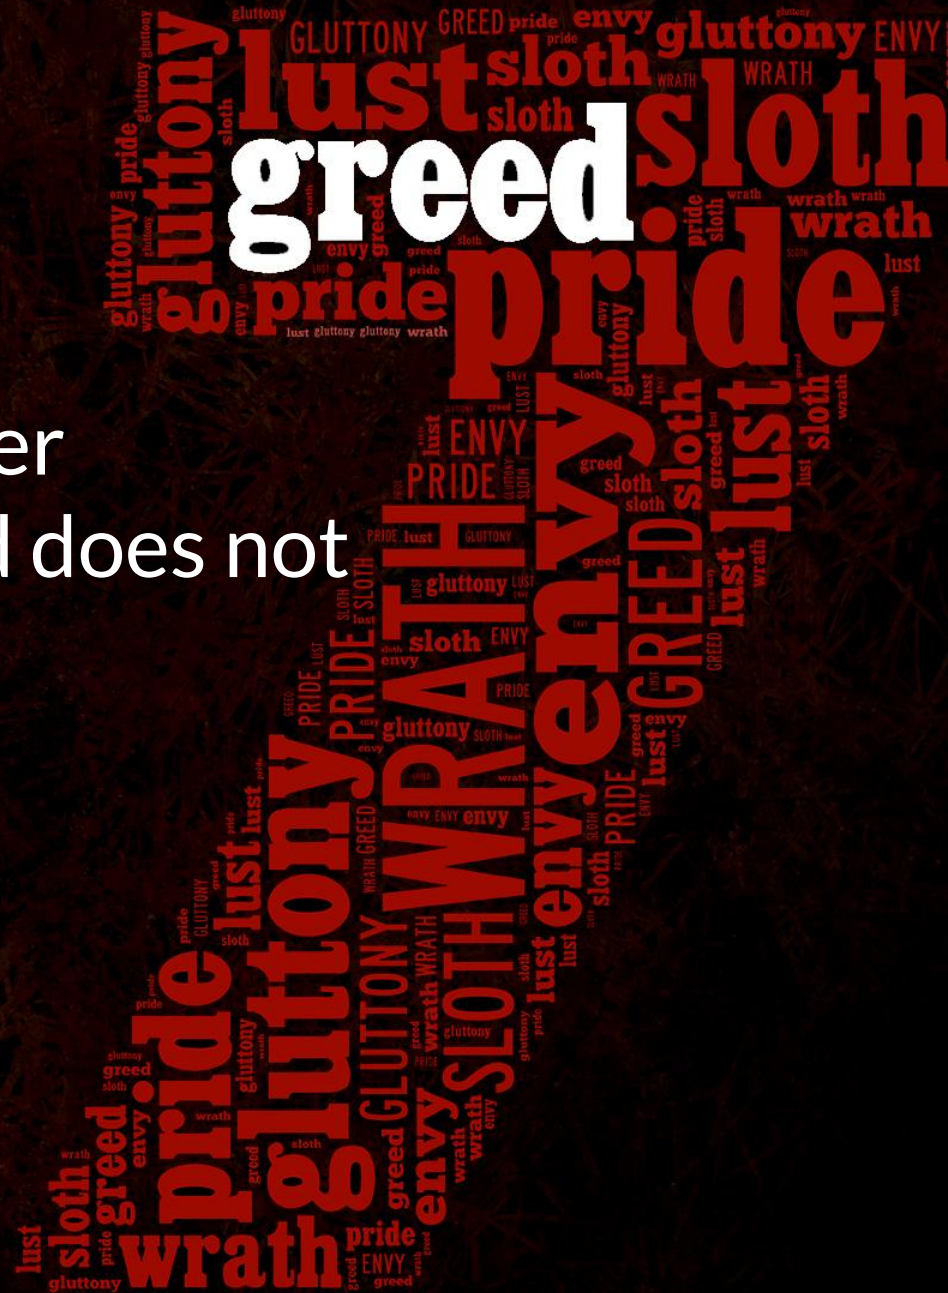

But when we're in eternity, this speck of time we call life will seem like a blip on the radar screen. So we need to ask ourselves, "In light of eternity and the brevity and uncertainty of this life, am I managing what God has entrusted to me so as to be rich toward God?" - Stephen Cole
