Jesus in the flesh changes everything

Council of Chalcedon 451 AD

[We] acknowledge one and the same Son our Lord Jesus Christ at once complete in Godhead and complete in manhood truly God and truly man consisting also of a reasonable soul and body; of one substance with the Father as regards his Godhead and at the same time of one substance with us as regards his manhood; like us in all respects apart from sin...

Hugh Halter

“Don’t think of the doctrine of the incarnation as doctrine The incarnation is a story of passion God longed for everything to be back the way it was and therefore He sent His Son Jesus to remedy the cycle of sin so that everything could be made new! That is way more than something to be studied! It is something to be considered and reflected on That is the why of the incarnation and if you don’t stop to ponder why, how come you will most likely
