Please don't walk through the mass grave!

The background of the image is a deep blue underwater scene. At the top, there is a layer of white and light blue bubbles, suggesting the surface of the water. The rest of the image is a solid, deep blue color, with some faint, vertical streaks of lighter blue and white bubbles on the left and right sides, giving it a sense of depth and movement.

Where and when is God speaking to us?

Every moment and every event of every man's life on earth plants something in his soul. For just as the wind carries thousands of winged seeds, so each moment brings with it germs of spiritual vitality that come to rest imperceptibly in the minds and wills of men. Most of these unnumbered seeds perish and are lost, because men are not prepared to receive them: for such seeds as these cannot spring up anywhere except in the good soil of freedom, spontaneity, and love.

Thomas Merton

The background of the slide is an underwater scene. The top portion shows the water's surface with white, frothy bubbles and ripples. Below the surface, the water is a deep, clear blue, with some faint, out-of-focus light patterns and bubbles visible, suggesting a sunlit underwater environment.

Mark 4:1-20

An underwater photograph showing sunlight filtering through the surface of the water, creating a shimmering, dappled light effect. The water is a deep blue, and the light rays are visible as they penetrate the surface.

the condition of the soil = the receptivity to the seeds Jesus is sowing in our lives.

The soil's whole task can be summarized in one mandate:
give the seed room!

Dale Bruner

The background of the slide is an underwater scene. At the top, there is a layer of white, frothy bubbles or light reflecting off the water's surface. Below this, the water is a deep, vibrant blue. Numerous light rays, or sunbeams, penetrate the water from the top, creating a shimmering, ethereal effect. The rays are most prominent in the upper half of the image and fade slightly towards the bottom. The overall texture is soft and fluid, typical of an underwater environment.

The rain and snow come down from the heavens and stay on the ground to water the earth. They cause the grain to grow, producing seed for the farmer and bread for the hungry. It is the same with my word. I send it out, and it always produces fruit. It will accomplish all I want it to, and it will prosper everywhere I send it.

Isaiah 55:10-11

The background is a vibrant blue, representing an underwater scene. At the top, there are white, frothy bubbles and ripples, suggesting the surface of the water. The blue deepens as it goes down, creating a gradient effect. The overall texture is slightly grainy, typical of an underwater photograph.

Disciplines that keep you receptive

Simplicity

Throughout church history followers of Jesus have intentionally vowed to live simply. Following the example of the Lord, they have given up comfort and possessions and the clutter of life to leave larger spaces for loving God and neighbour.

The central point for the Discipline of Simplicity is to seek the kingdom of God and the righteousness of his kingdom first and then everything else will come in its proper order.

Richard Foster

The background of the image is an underwater scene. At the top, there is a layer of white, frothy bubbles. Below this, the water is a deep blue, with numerous small, white bubbles rising from the bottom. Light rays are visible, filtering down from the surface, creating a sense of depth and tranquility. The overall composition is clean and minimalist, emphasizing the concept of simplicity.
